

Jerry Price

Belonging Partner Advisor – Corewell Health East

Jerry Price is a visionary Belonging strategist serving as Belonging Partner Advisor for Corewell Health dedicated to the East side of the State, a leading $15 billion not-for-profit integrated health system based in Michigan. In this enterprise-wide role, he spearheads the implementation of Corewell Health's Five Areas of Focus—cultural competency, equity of care, workforce inclusion, community engagement, and supplier inclusion—impacting more than 30,000 team members across the Southeast region.

Mr. Price is a trusted advisor to executive leadership, providing consulting and driving transformational culture change and embedding inclusive practices that empower teams to deliver on Corewell's mission: to improve health, inspire hope, and save lives. His work strengthens organizational resilience, enhances employee engagement, and ensures equitable care delivery across diverse communities.

A Certified Diversity Professional and a nationally recognized facilitator and trainer, Mr. Price brings deep expertise in inclusive leadership, cultural intelligence, and systems-thinking. He is also a respected civic leader, serving on multiple regional boards and councils, and serves on Governor Gretchen Whitmer's Black Leadership Council Health Steering Committee since 2021, where he contributes to shaping statewide health equity policy.
