

---

Tina Alonzo, CM, CHRS, CDP
Short Biography

Tina Alonzo is the Vice President of Belonging at Peckham, Inc. where she is responsible for leadership and execution of the organization's integrated belonging strategy to advance strategic priorities that guide meaningful organizational change and strengthen a culture of inclusion and sense of belonging for all.

Tina has a demonstrated capacity to provide cohesive strategic vision and leadership to improve outcomes and achieve goals. She is an experienced leader in strategy, policy and program development and implementation, culture, and establishing effective, equitable and inclusive operational practices. She is a sought-after presenter, trainer, advisor, and consultant. Tina has consistently built diverse relationships, inspires excellence and inclusion in delivering results, and remains actively engaged with community and professional organizations.

Tina is a Global Diversity, Equity, Inclusion Benchmarks (GDEIB) Certified Practitioner, Certified Diversity Professional, a certified administrator of the Intercultural Development Inventory, and certified in Mental Health First Aid. Tina has received several accolades, including recognition as a notable leader in 2023 by Crain's Detroit Business.