

Dana Lasenby, MBA, LLP

Chief Executive Officer & Executive Director
Oakland Community Health Network

Dana Lasenby, MBA, LLP, is a transformative public healthcare executive leading one of Michigan's most complex Medicaid-funded behavioral healthcare systems. As Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director of the Oakland Community Health Network (OCHN), she oversees a multi-million-dollar public authority serving more than 30,000 individuals annually in Oakland County across mental health, intellectual and developmental disability, and substance use disorder services.

Under Dana's leadership, OCHN has strengthened fiscal oversight, enhanced performance-based accountability, and advanced integrated physical and behavioral healthcare models aligned with federal and state requirements. She has led crisis system redesign efforts to ensure 24/7 access, improved governance transparency through structured board reporting, and reinforced Medicaid compliance across a large provider network.

Her work has directly influenced system sustainability, service continuity, and equitable access for vulnerable populations, including justice-involved individuals and people with complex behavioral health needs.

With three decades of clinical and executive leadership experience, Dana combines strategic vision, regulatory expertise, and operational discipline to drive measurable outcomes in public healthcare delivery.

A two-time gubernatorial appointee to the Michigan Autism Council, she continues to shape statewide policy, workforce stabilization strategies, and Medicaid system reform. Dana Lasenby exemplifies bold, accountable leadership in public healthcare transformation.

Dana is deeply connected to her community. She has been married for over thirty years and is a proud mother and grandmother. Dana combines personal dedication with professional excellence. She is also a proud member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated®, the nation's first historically African American Greek-letter sorority. This international organization is dedicated to scholarship and service to all mankind. Dana's lived values support her unwavering advocacy for a strong public community mental health system. She envisions OCHN as a national leader in integrated, equitable behavioral healthcare.
